

President Bob Munns opened the meeting at 6:30 p.m, Nov. 3, 2016. Elected officials and guests were recognized. Everyone enjoyed a delicious pot luck dinner.

Jane Michell gave an interesting presentation on the early days of Hickory Withe along with many old pictures and stories passed down from her father.

The minutes of the October meeting were on line and secretary, Joann Allen asked that a line be added that shows a donation of $100 to the Imagination Library that had been approved at the last meeting. The minutes were approved with the requested change. Treasurer, Becky Sue Evans, was out of town and no report was given.

President Munns gave an update on the Vesta Home Show. A total from $1 per ticket sold was $10,750 and he will pick up the check on Tuesday. He thanked everyone that helped with special thanks to Joann Allen, Bob and Kathy Kenney, Merrel and Kathy Miller.

Announcements:

Nov. 12 - Bazaar at UMC in Somerville, 9-3:00.

Linda Meyer - pray for our country at 7:00 each day.

RSVP singing group will be our entertainment at the December meeting.

Our Christmas projects for this year were presented: sign up to bring a gift for the Galloway mom's and an unwrapped toy for a child under 12 for the Fayette Cares toy drive. Bring gifts to December meeting.

There being no further business, the meeting was adjourned at 8:10 p.m.

Joann Allen, Secretary