

Hickory Withe Community Association Minutes
September 3, 2015

The Hickory Withe Community Association met on Thursday, September 3rd. President Bob Munns opened the meeting at 6:30 p.m. Elected officials and guests were recognized. Everyone enjoyed a delicious meal provided by The Bank of Fayette County. Seventy people were in attendance.

President Munns called the meeting to order and received reports from committees. Becky Sue Evans, gave the Treasurer's report which was approved. (See attached.) She reported that the Association's CD had been moved to a Money Market account which earns a bit more interest. The minutes from August were also approved.

Commissioner Homer Bunker and President Munns gave updates on the proposed Dollar General on Hwy 64. All were encouraged to attend the Planning Commission meeting in Oakland on October 6 at 7:00 p.m. as this issue should come up along with a discussion of Automotive Dealerships and Mobile Home/Modular Home Sales, both of which were removed from their September agenda.

Vice President, Jane Mitchell, announced the upcoming Cotton Festival baking and canning contest, encouraging all to attend and enter the contest.

President Munns announced a Community Breakfast that is being held by the 1st Baptist Church Hickory Withe from 7:30- 10:30 am which will benefit one of its ministries. All were encouraged to support it.

Commissioner, Terry Leggett, gave an update on member, Susan Holley. She has been cleared to have a bone marrow transplant on September 29th. All were asked for prayers for her.

President Munns introduced our speaker, McCall Wilson, president of The Bank of Fayette County. Mr. Wilson gave an interesting talk on the current state of finances at their bank and around the world.

Next month's meeting will be held on October 1st and our speaker will be Oakland Mayor, Chris Goodman.

The meeting was adjourned at 8:00 p.m.
