Minutes of May 7, 2015

Hickory Withe Community Association

The meeting was called to order by President Rudy Watkins. The opening prayer led by Jim Mitchell was followed by the Pledge of Allegiance led by Judge Jim Gallagher. Elected officials were recognized: present were County Commissioner Homer Bunker and Judge Jim Gallagher.

Business/Reports:

- Treasurer - Jim Mitchell reported on expenses and balances in checking and CD. His report is on file. Mr. Mitchell also brought forth a motion for the Association to donate $268.85 to Relay for Life. This will bring the total of our donation to $500.00. The motion was seconded and passed.
- Secretary - Interim Secretary, Joann Allen reported the April minutes were sent to each member via email and were also available at the meeting and on line . A motion to accept the April minutes was made, seconded and was passed.
- Benevolence - Interim Chairperson, Joann Allen, reported a card had been sent to member Betty Bunker on the death of her sister, and get well cards had been sent out to Jim Norton and Susan Holley.
- Hospitality - Chairperson, Inice Patnode, thanked Linda Myer, Doris Thorpe, Helyn Keith and Jeanie Moore for doing the decorations and all that helped to set up.

Program:

- President, Rudy Watkins, introduced the entertainment for the evening, magician Grayson Watson. The Amazin' Grayson presented an enjoyable and baffling program of magic feats.

Announcements:

An update on the health of member, Jim Norton, was given by President, Rudy Watkins. A motion was made for the Association to reimburse Jerry and Sydney Magsig for the gas they have used to cut the Norton's yard. The motion was seconded and passed.

Business:

- President Watkins will have a report from the Nominating Committee at our next meeting.
- Help is needed in hospitality to complete the year. Let Inice Patnode know if you would like to help.

There being no further business, the drawing for door prizes was held and the meeting adjourned.
