

President Bob Munns called the meeting to order and recognized visitors and elected officials. All enjoyed a delicious pot luck dinner.

Following our dinner the meeting was called back to order. Treasurer, Becky Sue Evans, presented the budget report which was approved. Secretary, Joann Allen, was not present but the minutes were on the table and they were approved.

There was a vote to use the association's checking account to pay for the use of the building each month and this was approved.

Tonight everyone brought a childhood picture of themselves and others tried to match the picture up to the person. This was a fun time.

Terry Leggett gave a report on what he and his wife, Sandy, had experienced at the inauguration of President Trump. County Mayor, Skip Taylor, gave reports on various happenings in the county: Spring Road clean up will be on a Sat. in March or April. All residents of the county are now covered by Hospital Wing.

Our guest speakers in March will be the Mayor of Oakland, Chris Goodman and Oakland's Chairperson of the Oakland Chamber of Commerce, Patty Krepela.

Last month new signs were handed out to members to put out in good locations prior to the meeting. This is the list: Bob Munns (2), Bob Kenney (4), Becky Sue Evans (1), Jane Mitchell (1), Ella Morris (1), JoAnn Stallings (1).

There being no further business, the meeting was adjourned.

Joann Allen, Secretary
