

Hickory Withe Community Association Minutes – December 7, 2017

Bob Kenney called the meeting to order.

Homer Bunker led the prayer.

Joe Moore led the Pledge of Allegiance

Elected officials present were Homer Bunker and James Hicks.

Total attendance was 60 people. Our Christmas pot luck meal included sliced ham and sides.

The secretary reported that the November minutes are posted on the website.

A copy of the treasurer's report was provided on the welcome table. Members were encouraged to renew their membership dues at the January meeting. Also, the 2018 budget will be presented by the treasurer at the January meeting.

Donations were given to 2 charities: The Imagination Library and The Friends of Fayette County Animal Shelter.

Members brought Christmas gifts for several ladies in the Galloway area.

The vice president announced the programs for January, February, March, and April, 2018. The January meeting will be Dr. Barton Thrasher speaking about healthy living for the new year.

The Jim Nortons will be our Meet Your Neighbor family at the January meeting.

The December program was a beautiful hand bell choir called Joyous Ring, led by our own member, Becky Sue Evans. This group of musicians shared wonderful Christmas songs with us.

The meeting was adjourned after the program.

Minutes submitted by Sandra Brewer, Secretary